Family No. 1 - Gen. 1

Michel Yoder from Germany was born Nov. 4, 1788, and married to Magdalena Eash born Feb. 19, 1787. Parents of Magdalena Eash were Samuel Eash, born 1752 in Pfaltz, in banden durlacher hof, and married to Catharina Fry. Moved to Hessen Darmstadt where Michel was employed as a miller at the Raetzenaurfers Mill. In the year 1825, Michel and his family and his sister, Mary, came to America, making their trip on a sailship and being 77 days on they voyage. Landed in Baltimore and being almost totally out of food and had not enough money to pay for their fare. Therefore his wife and children were kept at the harbor while Michel went out to some friends to get money to pay their fare before they could be released. From there they went to Summerset County, Pennsylvania, and lived at Johnstown or in the vicinity of Hollopple, where Mary was married to John Shettler who died in 1844. Mary died in 1868. Their children were Christian, born 1806 and Elisabeth was married to Abraham Miller. Christian was married to Fanny Nisley. Their children were Samuel, Daniel, Tobias, William, all died young; John died 1910 and was married to Lena Miller. Moses died in 1877 and was married to Lydia Miller; Christian died when he was 76 years old, married to Polly Hershberger; Mary died 1906 and was married to David Yoder; Jacob died; Lewis died 1924 and was married to Lydia Nofzinger, died in 1910; Abraham born 1853 was married to Malinda Stayrook. Could not get records when they were all born. On October 6, 1845, Michel and his family started for Holmes Co., making their trip on a wagon and came on the William Miller Farm, east of Walnut Creek Church, where they lived a short time and later on they moved on the farm now owned by Carl Geib, west of Walnut Creek, where they both died and are both buried on the Henry A. Kauffman Farm.
